

Is It Worth It?

- How of often do you find yourself asking that question?
- In all sorts of different scenarios!
  - was coming out to church this morning or evening worth it? (hmmm!)
  - is it worth being involved in the things we do in or for church outside of Sundays: GB, International Cafe, occasional bible study groups, Prayer Meeting... is the hassle and effort worth benefit?
  - is it worth putting in effort to speak to people - those you don't know a few seats away, those you do know but don't get on with well, those who it is an effort to speak to?
  - is it worth being good? Telling the truth, working hard, putting yourself out for others?
- Is life - and the Christian life in particular - worth it?
- Perhaps you don't often stop and wonder, but take a moment to stop and think and quite often that question will arise:
  - think about church decline over the past 40 years
  - think about the decline in societies standards in so many areas over the same period
- It is easy to paint a gloomy picture!
- Is it worth it?

- That is essentially the question Thessalonians were asking:
  - is it worth living as a Christian?
  - confusion over return of Christ - thought Jesus' return was meant to be with power and splendour, but if he had come, then nothing much had changed, evil was still rampant... why not just join in??

Christ's Power is Greater

- Paul's answer is simple:
  - despite appearances, Christ's power is greater....
  - ....and that makes living for him worthwhile!
- For the victory will be his, in the end.

Just now... Appearances can be deceptive

- There is a battle, but it is hidden
  - and the climax will come when things are revealed
  - look at words of secrecy, deceit and delusion - and contrast with words of revelation, of public display...
  - what is going on now is mostly a secret, hidden, guerilla war against God (v.4)
- (And as for identity of man of lawlessness, he's not been revealed!)

- Story: boy kidnapped and returned

- Evil - boy kidnapped.
  - God triumphs - is it too hard for the Creator of the Universe to bring one small boy back to his home? NO!
- The power of Christ may not have been evident for most of the duration of that story, but that did not make it any the less potent
  - just because you can't see it, doesn't make it unreal

- World is a mess - Christ's power is not evident.

But then... Reality will be revealed

- See what happens the instant the Lord Jesus comes?
  - things are revealed, they are clear and unmistakeable
  - the evil one, source of all the destruction and hatred the world has ever known, is swept away by his breath! (v.8)
  - puff - and he's gone!

2 Thessalonians 2:1-12 The man of lawlessness Fintry, 16/1/2011, pm

- The difference in power is so great its almost incomprehensible!
  - (All Black vs just about anyone at the moment!!)

Result:

- Stand firm - don't be shaken from what you know to be right (because it is in the Scriptures), and diverted off elsewhere
  - know that it is worth it!
  - for God will take us home!
- His power in Christ is far more than able to do so!
